

Constitution of the Provisional Managing Committee (PMC)

- 1. PMC to be elected in the first constituted General Body meeting.
- 2. If the first constituted General Body meeting fail to elect the provisional Managing Committee the registering authority may nominate the PMC and also nominate the chairman and Hon. Secretary.
- 3. The period of the working of the PMC will be one year.
- 4. One of the member of the PMC, as may be authorised by the first constituted General Body meeting, will convene the first meeting of the PMC, wherein the chairman, the Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer will be elected by the PMC.
- 5. The chief promoter will hand over the records and documents relating to registration of the society and accounts to the Chairman of the PMC.
- 6. The PMC will have the same powers and functions as the Managing Committee duly elected.
- 7. The PMC will be in office up to period of one year or until the regular elections are held under the provisions of Byelaws of society.
- 8. The PMC or the Nominated Committee will hand over the charge of all the assets and papers of the society to the chairman of the newly elected committee at the time of its first meeting, leaving nothing with him/them.