

Bye Laws No.104

[Chairman of the society to preside over all general body meeting]

The Chairman of the society shall preside over all general body meetings of the society, provided that if the Chairman is absent or if present and is unwilling to preside the members present may elect a person from amongst themselves to preside over it.

Note on this Bye-laws :-